Castello del Terriccio Con Vento 2021 ($46)—One of Tuscany's historic and grandest wine estates with some 2300 hilly acres located in Maremma, Castello del Terriccio is known for its Super Tuscan reds—Tassinai and Lupicaia. Its solo white, Con Vento, is a blend of Sauvignon Blanc and Viognier (instead of the Bordeaux's traditional Sémillon) and has lovely aromatics of stone fruit, grapefruit, and lemon grass. The grapes are grown up to 980 feet above sea level in stony fossil rich soils, which gives the wine a distinct minerality, and the breezes from the nearby Tyrrhenian Sea bring salinity to the wine, which is only 12.5% and a pair for antipasto and seafood salads.
